

EXHIBIT A

1.1.9 Expiration of Approved Development Plans

* * *

D. Expiration of Development Plans Approved Between April 1, 2007 and January 1, 2010: Where a site has received plan approval for a detailed district development plan, conditional use permit plan, category review plan or general development plan between April 1, 2007 and June 30, 2010, it shall be valid for a period of four (4) years. Prior to the end of the four (4) year term, if the conditions of Section 1.1.9.B.1 above have not been met, the applicant may request and extension of the expiration date in accordance with this Section.